Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Revelation 22

1. What have all the events of 2020 made you ask, wonder, or consider? What have you heard other people ask?
2. When you think about Jesus' return, are you more filled with hope or grief? Why?
3. When you think about Jesus' return, in what ways do you feel "ready?" In what ways do you feel unprepared?
4. What is right/good/fair about some people being excluded from the future city with God? Is anything about it unfair?
5. Since no one deserves to enter the city, should Christians feel any superiority over others who don't enter? Why/why not? How should Christians feel about entering only through the achievement of someone else (Christ)?
6. If God has let go of some people for them to go their own way, why remain fervent in evangelism?
