Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Nehemiah 2:1-20

1. When was a time you were passionate about solving a problem but didn't see a way to begin? How long did you need to wait before you realized how to move forward?
2. What are some of the benefits to being forced to wait before you begin? Some of the challenges?
3. Is there anything you would like to address and begin to solve right now, but you can't see a way forward? If so, what?
4. Share some times from your past that you took a risk and acted on a problem when you had the opportunity. Share some examples when you stayed silent or shrunk back from an opportunity.
5. How does one reaction compare to the other? What would you coach yourself to do if you found yourself in a similar situation in the future?
6. After God opens a door for you to act, do you tend to thank Him, thank others, or credit your own ingenuity for the opportunity that has opened to you? Why is it sometimes difficult to remember that God is ultimately the One who has provided?
7. When was a time you faced opposition after gaining a significant opportunity? How did you respond to it?
8. Has opposition ever made you believe you weren't where you were supposed to be? Should it indicate that sometimes? Why/why not?
