
Date: July 25, 2021

Title: The Source of Satisfaction

Scripture: Psalm 119:1-32

The source of satisfaction: _____

Why we miss it: _____

The true source of satisfaction: _____

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Psalm 119:1-32

1. How would you define the good life? How is it attained?
2. What advice would you give someone to help them avoid regrets? Do you always follow your own advice? Why or why not?
3. If someone told you it was okay to do whatever you want as long as it didn't hurt someone, what would you tell them?
4. On a scale from 1-10 (with 10 indicating complete satisfaction) how much satisfaction do you find in God's Word? Does it fluctuate? Why?
5. Have you ever tried very hard to be perfectly moral? What happened?
6. Do you tend to look at the Old Testament as a to-do list or an already done list? What difference would viewing it in those two different ways make in your life?